High-End, Paid Internships at Luxury Clubs in The USA

Hospitality Management, Food and Beverage, Culinary • Southeastern and Northeastern United States

Now Enrolling Exceptional Interns with Educational and Professional Experience in Hospitality Management, Food and Beverage, and Culinary Fields For Premium Positions

WHAT IS A LUXURY RESIDENTIAL CLUB?

A residential club is an exclusive, gated-community focused on providing a variety of exceptional recreational and dining services to its community members. Consisting of several hundred luxury homes, club members reside as a getaway from the cold weather during the winter months. Every community member pays an annual fee to have access to the abundance of services and amenities offered, including dining outlets, golf courses, swimming pools, tennis courts, marinas, social activities and private security.

WHERE COULD YOU TRAIN?

Below are some examples of locations where you train:

BallenIsles Country Club (www.ballenisles.com)

This country Club, a 5-Star Platinum Club of America, offers its members a magnificent clubhouse, a new sports complex, 3 championship golf courses, world-class tennis, wonderful amenities, numerous Club activities, and a convenient location. It is a premier community of privacy and prestige nestled in the heart of Florida's Palm Beaches, near miles of uninterrupted beaches, beautiful palm trees and an atmosphere of relaxation. With an average temperature of 75 degrees Fahrenheit from November to April, it is easy to enjoy outside activities such as boating, fishing, and water and sporting events. The Club is also just a short drive from many of the best shopping, world-class dining and cultural activities that Palm Beach County has to offer.

Lost Tree Club (www.losttreeclub.com)

This private Club, located in North Palm Beach, is known for its ocean views, intra-coastal golf course, and lake views. The Club is located on 450 acres and the residences are known for their quality architecture and stunning location. There are homes on Lake Worth with wide water views and deep water ocean access, golf cottages located near the private golf course, and homes on interior lakes in this beautiful community. The Club is renowned for its privacy and exclusivity. It offers a private 18 hole golf course, 8 tennis courts, and private beach. It has a beautiful beach club with a private restaurant open 2 days a week for dinner and for lunches most of the year.
